

AMOW

Our annual Music competition is now closed for entries.

But now we can look forward to the final on Thursday 7th April at the Arts Centre at 7:30, where up to 14 acts compete for the chance to win the £100 prize, professional recording of their winning performance, and opportunities to play at many events throughout the year. Details here

In response to discussions in the Mini MusE Primary network meetings, the Music Hub is pleased to be able to offer training in the following areas this academic year:

- Singing for the Non-Specialist
- How to Embrace Notation

Each training session is from 1pm - 4pm at Walsall Arena and Arts Centre and costs £25 per session (£50 if you teach outside of Walsall).

Please click on the links above for more information and to book your place

CPD Sessions planned for 2022-2023 include:

- Improvisation and Composition
- Terminology and analysis
- Leading your subject

If you would like to see additional topics please contact Steph Dufty on sdufty@walmused.org.uk

If you would like to learn more about the Mini MusE network of primary school music teachers in Walsall please click here

Walsall CEP is delighted to launch Walsall SHOUTS – a new conference by and for the young people of Walsall – on 1 April 2022, 10am-3pm at Walsall New Art Gallery.

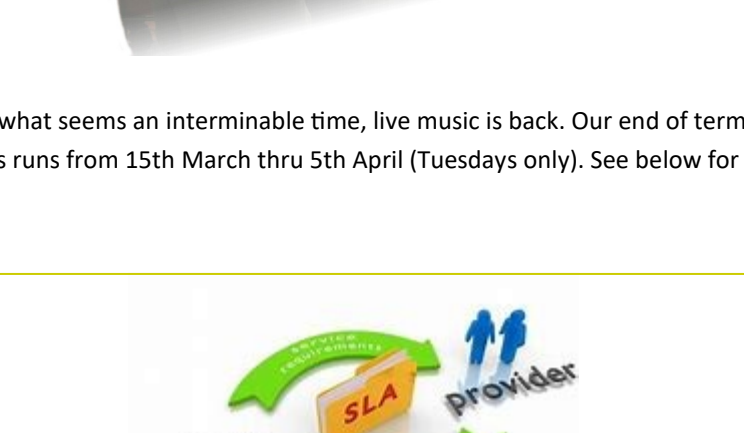

We are inviting schools to nominate two students to attend Walsall SHOUTS as Young Arts Ambassadors for their schools. The event aims to give Walsall's young people the opportunity to help shape the future of arts and culture in Walsall, and to create a young people's arts & culture manifesto. Click here for more, or here to book

Developing the role of the Primary Arts Coordinator – Monday 28th March – 12.30 – 4pm – Midland Arts Centre (MAC) – £50 (inclusive of lunch and afternoon tea) Arts Connect and Birmingham Arts School (as part of Birmingham Creates) are delivering a workshop for Primary Teachers to explore the role of the Primary Arts Coordinator and how to strengthen provision across the arts to support school improvement.

Click here for more

Click here to book

Lots of events at the BIMM institute this month. Secondary HoDs in particular must see this

At last. After what seems an interminable time, live music is back. Our end of term Tuesday concert series runs from 15th March thru 5th April (Tuesdays only). See below for Rock n Pop.

Full info here

School SLAs (Service Level Agreement) are currently out in schools in readiness for next year. If you need to update yours or indeed would like the Hub to support your music making in schools, contact Steph Dufty for more

We've reported on these before, but it bears repeating. School workshops offers workshops in any number of subjects. If anyone uses them, please report back so we know what to expect (their user feedback is good by the way)

Can you believe, we are already promoting our Walsall Arena Christmas concert series for Primary schools.

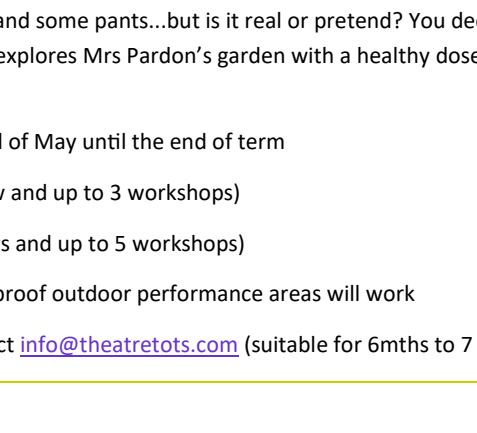

We are absolutely delighted to announce that Ula Weber will be taking over directing the event this year

Full details (including the booking form) are available here

The Junior Singing Festival is almost upon us. The dates are confirmed as Friday 24th June, Friday 1st July, Friday 8th July. Full details here, booking form here

Matthew Colley is an experienced choral leader, and will be overseeing event this year. The format remains the same as previous years: schools offer 2 songs to share in the morning with feedback from Matthew, followed by a workshop in the afternoon where children will learn a challenging piece and present it to selected friends and family at the close of the day.

The End of Term Rock n Pop offering is scheduled for Wednesday 6th April.

Why not come along and support some alternative emerging talent.

To whet your appetite, here's a link to one of the lockdown recordings we did - brilliant!

Walsall Music Education Hub and Service have partnered with The University of Wolverhampton to offer your students a World Music day experience. This will be hosted by the University at The Performance Hub on their Walsall Campus, Gorway Road, Walsall, WS1 3BD.

There will be three workshops for your students throughout the day:

- Indonesian gamelan
- Caribbean steel pans
- West African djembe drumming

The dates available are:

- Thursday 26th May
- Friday 10th June
- Thursday 15th September
- Friday 16th September
- Thursday 19th January
- Friday 20th January

More full details can be found here

A rhyming wellie woman musical show about Mrs Pardon in her wonderful garden. What does she grow there? Wellies, jellies and some pants...but is it real or a pretend? You decide! Based on the book of the same name this story explores Mrs Pardon's garden with a healthy dose of silliness, and a much needed amount of clutter

Available from the end of May until the end of term

Half Day: £400 (1 show and up to 3 workshops)

Full Day: £600 (2 shows and up to 5 workshops)

Hall space or weatherproof outdoor performance areas will work

To book: please contact info@thetretots.com (suitable for 6mths to 7 years)

Subscribe to our channel and like our Facebook/Twitter pages to keep up to date with what's happening from the Music Hub

Website

YouTube

Facebook

Twitter

Instagram